

1. Tick the right answer.
  - a. Louis Braille was blind by: accidentally wounding himself with an awl.
  - b. Louis Braille went to Paris: to seek a way to somehow read.
  - c. Louis Braille was all the while; thinking of what to do next after he came across the secret army code.
2. The person who reads and writes for the blind when they take examinations. Ans. Scribe.
3. Write Yes or No.
  - a. Abdul Kalam sold newspapers because he wanted to earn money to pay his school fees. Yes.
  - b. Abdul Kalam was called he Missile Man because he had fought in many wars. No.
  - c. The most lovable quality is Abdul Kalam was his simplicity even as the Head of State. Yes.
  - d. Abdul Kalam believed that hard work, determination and honesty can bring success in life. Yes.
4. Answer the question.
  - a. Do you think you should learn to study on your own as much as possible? Give reasons.
Ans. Yes, we think we should learn to study on our own as much as possible, because the more we study our self we understand better, the concept becomes more clear we get the idea of the subject and can related and explain it to others and can produce better result.
  - b. What qualities in learning did both Louis Braille and Abdul Kalam have in common?
Ans. Both of them were determined, hard working, always worked for qualities and were humble.

Assignment:

1. Find out the name of the person whose invention made patients unaware of what was happening when surgeons operated upon them.
2. Find out why Abdul Kalam was called the Missile Man.
3. Write short note on Abdul Kalam and Louis Braille.